ITEM

Awarding the title of Honorary Professor to Dr. Hermann Baron von Richtofen by Central Connecticut State University

BACKGROUND

Pursuant to Board Resolution #89-128, the title of Honorary Professor may be awarded from time to time to individuals who make substantial contributions to a university freely and willingly without compensation. The Honorary Professor title remains with the recipient for life, although it is not accompanied by compensation, emolument, or perquisite.

ANALYSIS

Dr. Hermann Baron von Richtofen has provided distinguished service to Central Connecticut State University through his willingness to share insights with faculty, students and the general public. In these activities, he draws on an impressive career as a diplomat and many years of outstanding service to Germany and the world community. Dr. Baron von Richtofen is richly deserving of recognition for his contributions to CCSU and the people of the State of Connecticut as well as the global commitment he has demonstrated by his life's work. He seems ideally suited to be a recipient of this Award.
