

RESOLUTION

honoring

DR. MATTHEW S. WARSHAUER

upon being awarded

THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM
2007 SYSTEM LEVEL TRUSTEES RESEARCH AWARD

May 10, 2007

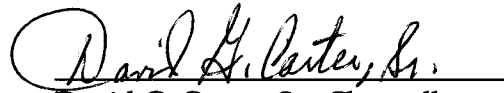

- WHEREAS, Through BR#06-06, the Board of Trustees of the Connecticut State University System reaffirmed its commitment to promote an environment that supports and recognizes faculty scholarly activities in their academic fields, and
- WHEREAS, The Trustees of the Connecticut State University System established five research awards annually: one university award to a faculty member from each of the CSUS universities and a single system award, chosen among the four university awards, to the faculty member whose work best exemplifies high quality research/creative achievement throughout the entire CSUS, and
- WHEREAS, The awards are designated for assistant or associate professors in good standing with the university who are doing research/creative work of exceptional promise and hold tenure-track or tenure positions upon nomination by colleagues, departments, schools, and/or self nomination and who demonstrate substantive contributions, achievements and scholarly activity in their field during the last five years, and
- WHEREAS, Dr. Warshauer, an Associate Professor in the Department of History at Central Connecticut State University, has been recommended by the System Review Committee of CSU University Professors to be distinguished with the system level research award with particular mention of his ground-breaking work on the first imposition of martial law in the U.S., its significance in the development of emergency powers in times of danger and its implications for civil liberties in contemporary times which has begun to capture national attention, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State University System commends Dr. Warshauer for his unique academic and research achievements, congratulates him on receipt of the System Level Trustees Research Award and extends its best wishes for continued success in his academic endeavors, and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Chancellor of the Connecticut State University System will work with the university Presidents to ensure maximum visibility to this award through local and statewide print and electronic media.
