Board of Trustees for State Colleges

Dear Jim:

In memory of her late husband, Mrs. Robert W. Phipps-- 52 Westerfield Road, Hamden, Connecticut, 06514-- recently donated to the Hilton C. Buley Library of Southern Connecticut State College a very generous collection of historical books (278 hard-cover and 441 paperbacks) which would have quite a monetary value. These volumes include a wide range of material that will be useful to both undergraduate and graduate students in their studies and research.

Mr. Phipps, as you may recall, was an Assistant Professor in the Department of History at Southern and died suddenly (April 24, 1972) while conducting his evening graduate class.

Since this is a very fine contribution to the Library collection of historical volumes, the Board may wish to express their appreciation to Mrs. Phipps for her thoughtfulness and generous donation of these resource materials.

Sincerely,

Manson Van B. Jennings
President

Dear Mrs. Phipps:

The Board of Trustees for Connecticut State Colleges acknowledges with deep felt thanks your gift of books in memory of your husband, Dr. Robert W. Phipps. Your generosity in presenting over 700 books will be of great benefit to the students and faculty of Southern Connecticut State College.

President Jennings has informed me that each book will be marked as a gift in memory of your husband. In this way these volumes, which are in Dr. Phipps' field of scholarship, will provide a most appropriate and fitting memorial.

Yours very sincerely,

James A. Frost
Executive Secretary
