Dear Jim:

If it is not too late, I would appreciate having on the agenda of the Planning Committee when it meets here next Thursday consideration of my recommendation that the Board approve a resolution of appreciation to the Consul General of Spain in New York for his donation of 846 books to the college.

If this can be done so that the Board approves at its February 4 meeting, I would then be able formally to present the resolution to the Consul General when he comes to our campus a couple of weeks later.

Sincerely,

Manson Van B. Jennings
President

Dear Dr. Jennings:

I am pleased to inform you that, due to my efforts, I have obtained from the Honorable Alberto Lopez Herce, Consul General of Spain in New York, a new donation of 701 Spanish books for our Buley Library.

As you know, the Spanish Consul, accepting my request, donated last year to our College library 145 books. Therefore, the total donation now amounts to a total of 846 books.

Due to the austerity program, the Buley library resources for new acquisitions are limited and the Spanish collection for students' research has not been what it could be. I have done as much as I can to remedy this situation.

Mr. Lopez Herce has informed me that he is willing to come to our College to present this donation late in February. He will give a definite date soon.

Sincerely yours,
