RESOLUTION

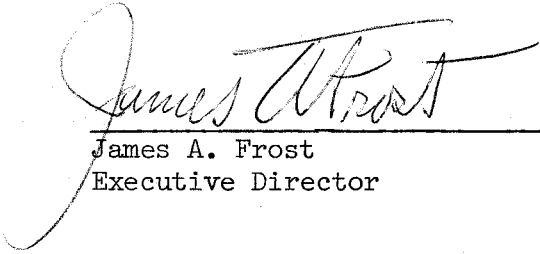

concerning

DEAN OF PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION
at
SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT STATE COLLEGE

September 9, 1977

- WHEREAS, The requirements of contract administration and the growing complexities of personnel relationships call for adjustments in the organization of the management structure, and
- WHEREAS, The Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State Colleges has created the position, Dean of Personnel Administration, on each campus, and
- WHEREAS, Southern Connecticut State College, in accordance with the requirements of affirmative action, has set up a search committee which has made a unanimous recommendation to the College President who in turn has strongly endorsed that recommendation and transmitted it to the Board of Trustees, and
- WHEREAS, The Personnel and Collective Bargaining Committees have carefully examined the credentials of and, through the chairmen of the committees, interviewed the candidate recommended by the President of Southern Connecticut State College; therefore, be it
- RESOLVED, That under the authority granted in Section 14 of Public Act 77-573, Michael J. Adanti is hereby appointed Dean of Personnel Administration at Southern Connecticut State College effective September 9, 1977 at a salary of $24,500.

Dear Jim:

Enclosed is a proposed resolution for the appointment of Mr. Adanti as Dean of Personnel Administration.

As you will note, it closely follows the wording of the resolution prepared for the appointment of the Dean of Personnel Administration at Eastern.

Sincerely,

Manson Van B. Jennings
President
