Dear Mr. Fogal:

We at Central Connecticut State University are most appreciative of your donation of the small chapel organ from the First Congregational Church of Darien to our University. It is my understanding that this has been of great value for use in some of our religious services on campus. We are certainly most appreciative of this gift to the University.

I am taking the pleasure of making this gift known to our Board of Trustees for Connecticut State University .

Thank you again for this support and enhancement of our University mission.

Sincerely yours,

F. Don James
President
