RESOLUTION

concerning

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE TITLE

VICE PRESIDENT FOR ACADEMIC AND STUDENT AFFAIRS,

THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY

January 6, 1984

- WHEREAS, The Executive Officer for Academic and Student Affairs is the chief academic officer of the Connecticut State University and holds responsibilities usually assigned to a vice president of a university system, and
- WHEREAS, The term "Executive Officer" has led to confusion concerning the responsibilities and authority assigned to that position, therefore be it
- RESOLVED, That the title Executive Officer for Academic and Student Affairs be changed to Vice President for Academic and Student Affairs, the Connecticut State University, and that the policy statements of the Trustees which are currently in effect and all other documents that are currently in effect be modified to reflect this change in title, and be it further
- RESOLVED, That the present Executive Officer for Academic and Student Affairs, Dr. Thomas A. Porter, be and hereby is named Vice President for Academic and Student Affairs, the Connecticut State University, with no change in responsibilities, duties, or salary.
