

P.O. Box 2008, New Britain, Connecticut 06050
(203) 827-7700

RESOLUTION concerning
STUDENT ACCIDENT INSURANCE

January 13, 1989

- WHEREAS, The Trustees desire to continue student accident insurance protection for the year 1989-90 for full-time students, and
- WHEREAS, Goodwin, Loomis and Britton, Inc., of Hartford, Connecticut, representing the Aetna Life Insurance & Annuity Co., has indicated that said carrier will not renew its coverage of Connecticut State University students, and
- WHEREAS, Goodwin, Loomis and Britton, Inc., can provide a continuation of accident coverage for Connecticut State University students through CIGNA at an annual per student premium increase of $15.00 for the 1989-90 academic year, be it
- RESOLVED, That the President of Connecticut State University is authorized to contract with Goodwin, Loomis, and Britton, Inc., as agent for CIGNA, for accident insurance for full-time students during 1989-90 at a rate of $43.00 per student per year as provided by the University's student accident insurance program for the current year, with certain modifications.

A Certified True Copy:

Dallas K. Beal
President

An Equal Opportunity Employer