

Connecticut State University System
Board of Trustees

BR#96-39

RESOLUTION

concerning

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE TITLE

CHANCELLOR

of the

CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM

June 14, 1996

WHEREAS, The President of the Connecticut State University System is the chief executive officer for the CSU System, and

WHEREAS, The title of "President" has led to confusion between the System President and the Presidents of Central, Eastern, Southern and Western Connecticut State Universities, and

WHEREAS, Nationally, most systems of higher education designate their chief executive officer as "Chancellor," therefore be it

RESOLVED, That Board Resolution 83-160 establishing the title of President is hereby repealed, and be it

RESOLVED, That the title President of the Connecticut State University System be changed to Chancellor of the Connecticut State University System, and that in the policy statements of the Trustees which are currently in effect and in all other documents that are currently in effect, where the term "President" appears it shall have the same meaning as Chancellor, and be it further

RESOLVED, That the current President, Dr. William J. Cibes, Jr., be and hereby is named Chancellor of the Connecticut State University System with no change in responsibilities, duties, or salary.
