

Connecticut State University System
Board of Trustees

BR#96-44

RESOLUTION

concerning

ACCEPTANCE OF A GRANT OF $100,000 FROM THE
DAVIS EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION
FOR A MULTI-DISCIPLINARY APPROACH TO TEACHING

AT

EASTERN CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY

June 14, 1996

WHEREAS, The Trustees of the Davis Educational Foundation, has awarded Eastern Connecticut State University a grant to support a multi-disciplinary approach to teaching in the departments of Fine Arts, Communication, and Continuing Education, and

WHEREAS, The grant, in the amount of $100,000, will represent a collaborative effort between the University and other area educational institutions and business, and

WHEREAS, The Davis Educational Foundation was established by Stanton and Elisabeth Davis after his retirement as chairman of Shaw's Supermarkets, Inc. for the purpose of supporting projects which enhance educational purposes in collaboration with private business, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State University accepts the above grant from the Davis Educational Foundation and, be it further

RESOLVED, That President David G. Carter convey the gratitude of the Board to Peter K. Davis, Trustee of the Davis Educational Foundation for its generous grant to the University and its students.

A Certified True Copy:

_____
William J. Cibes, Jr.
President